ABOUT BTAA

Brain Tumour Alliance Australia Inc (BTAA) is a not for profit organisation run by volunteers.

We support all Australians affected by a brain tumour through our services, information resources and projects.

The diagnosis of a brain tumour can place enormous challenges upon both the person diagnosed with a brain tumour and their family and other supports.

There is often a sense of being overwhelmed, confused and of being alone. BTAA is here to assist you and your family.

Contact BTAA today to receive

- Telephone support
- A free information pack, paediatric and adult
- Hard copy and electronic newsletters
- Australian e-news updates
- Information about a support group near you
- A copy of the International Brain Tumour Alliance (IBTA) annual magazine and their regular e-news updates

We represent brain tumour patients, their families and carers, and advocate on their behalf.

We do this through our involvement with many organisations dedicated to improved health care and research.
